Hi Chris,

Happy to get you set up with a trial subscription. I typically schedule a conversation with Dave ahead of a trial so he can walk you through Pro and get you set up with customized alerts.

Would any of the times listed next week work?

Best,

Jay

Hi Chris,

I just spoke with Judy, who mentioned you were on another call. I was reaching out to follow up on your request for a demo of POLITICO Pro. I work on the account management team for EPA with my director, Dave Gelsomino (cc'ed). We work with a number of your of your colleagues within OAR.

I'd like to set aside a few minutes for you to connect with Dave so he can introduce you to Pro in more detail. Are you available any of these times next week?
